Kent Rasmussen Notes:

Merlot is for food....be it lunch, dinner, or even breakfast — I can't think of a better wine to go with everything "food" - even bacon and eggs. It is just the right wine for anytime and anywhere — no thought....but open a Merlot!

The 2014 Ramsay Merlot fits the above description perfectly. It is balanced and accessible, yet by no means a light-weight. It is fresh, firm, subtle and pretty. It is my idea of a lovely summer-by-the-stream or a gleaming-snowy-night — multi-layered and multi-faced. It is inconceivable that this wine can't be a friend.
